HIT THE BOOK CLUB WITH CONVERSATIONS WITH RBG BY JEFFREY ROSEN

1. Before reading this novel, what was your original perception of Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg? Did this perception of her change after you finished reading?
2. In the beginning of the novel the author, Jeffrey Rosen, discusses RBG's landmark cases—which one of these cases resonated with you the most? Do you think that during the case RBG achieved her goal of creating a standard for gender discrimination that could be applied neutrally to either sex?
3. Discuss RBG's revision of Rosen's wedding vows. Do you think this was necessary? What message do you think she was trying to share?
4. What did you find most shocking about the controversy mentioned in the chapter about RBG's thoughts on the court case Roe v. Wade?
5. Did you disagree with RBG's opinions at any point? If so, why?
6. What was something you did not expect to read in this novel?
7. What is your greatest takeaway from Conversations with RBG?
8. Would you apply RBG's advice in this novel to your own life? Why or why not?
